

The Washington Times

WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1904.

TO WELCOME HERO OF NANSHAN HILL

Eki Hioki, Secretary of Legation, Designated.

PRINCE FUSHIMI'S VISIT

Trip to America Supposedly in Interest of International Amity—Banquet at the Legation Planned.

Eki Hioki, first secretary of the Japanese legation, has been designated by Minister Takahira to meet Lieut. Gen. Prince Fushimi, the special representative of the Japanese Emperor, who will arrive at San Francisco on November 13 for a month's visit to this country. Minister Takahira had intended going to San Francisco himself to greet the royal visitor, but will be detained here by official duties. He will meantime arrange for a magnificent reception to be given Prince Fushimi when the latter reaches Washington. The Japanese legation will be thrown open and many prominent people will be invited to attend a banquet to be given there in honor of the prince.

Prince Fushimi's Mission.

There is some doubt as to the exact purpose of Prince Fushimi's visit at this time, but the general object is thought to be the further cementing of the friendly ties between Japan and the United States.

Lieutenant General Prince Fushimi commanded the first division of the Japanese army in the recent war. He was prominent in the opening of the war. The Japanese troops stormed a strongly fortified hill, on the Liao-Tung peninsula, and with frightful loss of life in the wire entanglements, mines, and trenches, which blocked their path, they drove the enemy off the heights at the point of their bayonets, thereby demonstrating at the very outbreak of hostilities the splendid courage and determination which has since characterized their fighting in all the land campaigns.

Favorite of Mikado.

Lieutenant General Prince Fushimi made a record for valor on this occasion. He is the senior imperial prince, and a favorite of the Mikado. He is but little over thirty-five years of age, and has been numerous times decorated. The Emperor recalled him from the scene of battle to make the trip to America, and judging from this fact alone, the visit of the Japanese envoy may be regarded as one of extreme importance.

That Japan is anxious to retain the good will of America throughout the war has been made evident on many previous occasions. Prince Fushimi's visit is doubtless intended as another evidence of good faith.

TWO SLIGHT FIRES AND A FALSE ALARM

One hundred dollars' damage was done by fire in Mrs. Ara Smith's home, 1415 Eighth Street northwest, early this morning. An alarm was sounded from box 21 and firemen quickly put out the flames with hand extinguishers. The origin of the fire is unknown. The damage was mostly to the furniture, which was insured.

Rubbish in the furnace room of Mrs. Mary Robinson's house, 1809 Nineteenth Street, caught fire and an alarm was struck from box 24 and the blaze was extinguished in short order. Considerable excitement was caused by the early morning blaze and a number of persons would have jumped from windows had it not been for the police, who quieted them by telling them the fire was slight and their houses would not be burned. The street was filled with persons in scant attire.

Some one evidently desirous of seeing the fire department horses run, turned in an alarm from box 23 at Twelfth and V Streets northwest about 1 o'clock this morning. The alarm proved to be false and the police are looking for the miscreant.

"Strictly Reliable Qualities"

McKnew's Sole Agents for CENTEMERI GLOVES.

There are reasons why it pays to buy Centemeri Gloves. They cost a few cents more, but in them you get the best glove quality in the world—and the latest Parisian styles. We have all the new fall shades, browns, modes, gun-metal, and black, with embroidered stitching at

$1.50, $1.75, and
$2 pr.

Wm. H. McKnew,
933 Pennsylvania Ave.

PRINCE FUSHIMI

COMING TO THIS COUNTRY.

Hero of Nanshan Hill. He Commanded the First Division of the Japanese Army in the Famous Battle.

NON-UNIONIST SHOOTS UNIONIST IN A FIGHT

OLEAN, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Fred Manning, a union glass worker, was shot last night near Shingle House, Pa., by Westley Babcock, a non-union workman, whom Manning attacked. Manning will recover.

The fight grew out of the snappers' strike. Five union men assailed four non-union workers.

BIG STATUE OF LA SALLE TRANSPORTED IN ROME

ROME, Oct. 21.—The transit of the colossal group representing Jean Baptiste de la Salle, the last saint canonized by Pope Leo XIII, in the act of teaching children, which was cut from a block of marble weighing thirty-eight tons, is attracting great public interest. The figure of the saint is sixteen feet in height and those of the children are ten feet high. It is being carried on a great truck drawn by eighteen oxen. It will reach the steps of St. Peter's this morning, and will be put in place sixty-five feet above the pavement on Wednesday, October 26.

VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION TO HANG OUT BANNER

Another Parker and Davis political banner will be stretched across Pennsylvania Avenue this evening. It is to be put up by the Virginia Association, which will meet in the headquarters at 1429 Pennsylvania Avenue at 8 o'clock.

Speeches will be made by F. L. Siddons and George Browning. President Clarence Thomas, who has been ill in Virginia, has returned and is at work actively for the club.

CLERGYMAN IN PRAYER DIES ON HIS KNEES

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 21.—While on his knees in prayer, the Rev. Dr. Andrew McElwain, of Ridley Park, died of heart failure last evening. Dr. McElwain was eighty-eight years old, and had been preaching for fifty-six years, but a few years ago he gave up his charge as pastor of the West Park Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, and since then has been preaching twice a month at various churches.

FINDS SHE ELOPED WITH A CRIMINAL

Sixteen-Year-Old Alabama Girl Taken to St. Louis.

UNMASK A POOL CHAMPION

Benjamin H. Brumby, Who Defeated De Oro, An Ex-convict, Confesses to Many Crimes After Being Jailed.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21.—Confronted with the fact that the man with whom she eloped from Birmingham, Ala., eight weeks ago on the promise of marriage when they reached St. Louis is a forger, a burglar, an ex-convict, and an habitual crook, "Jimmie" Hardy, a sixteen-year-old girl with big, blue eyes, fluffy brown hair and a petite figure, weepingly wonders whether her mother will receive her if she should seek to return to her home.

The man is Benjamin H. Brumby, thirty-one years old, who has been a contestant in a professional pool tournament. He claims the title of "champion pool player of the South" and defeated De Oro in his first game.

He admits that pool playing has been but a "side line" with him since he came to St. Louis.

In the three weeks that he has been here he says he has committed two burglaries, forged twelve checks, passed one of them for $500, tried to pass another for $500, and reserved the others, calling for a total of $3,000 for other attempts.

Brumby on Tuesday afternoon attempted to pass a forged check for $500 at the National Bank of Commerce. The paying-teller detected the forgery, and when he stepped from his cage to compare the signature with an original Brumby darted from the bank.

Brumby admits he served two years in the Missouri penitentiary for larceny, and that he has been arrested several times.

WILL RELIEVE MARINES ON THE CANAL ZONE

United States marines are still to be retained on the Isthmus of Panama. The battalion now encamped on the canal zone will return to this country, but another, under the command of Col. Thomas N. Wood, will take its place.

Conditions are such in the Isthmus that it is not wise to withdraw the American guard, and the change announced was agreed upon yesterday afternoon at a conference between Brigadier General Elliott, commanding the Marine Corps, and Secretary Morton.

Factions in the Isthmus which are dissatisfied with the turn of canal matters make conditions there rather unsettled. No serious trouble is expected, but the battalion of marines is regarded as the best preventive of any outbreak.

Y. M. C. A. Athletes Busy Indoors and Outdoors

Baseball Team Already Selected—Basketball Team Will Have Four Veterans—Cross Country Runs Well Attended.

The athletic season of the Washington Y. M. C. A. is fairly under way. The indoor baseball and basketball teams have been selected, tentatively, and the first regular contest of the winter is scheduled for tomorrow night, when the baseball team will face the team from Carroll Institute in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

New Ball Team.

The line-up of the association team tomorrow will be, R. Coleman, catcher; R. S. Pierson, pitcher; W. Tracy, first base; H. Bryan, second base; Anderson, third base; A. R. Quantrell, left short; W. B. White, right short; Chris Woodhead or S. G. Tate, left field, and C. Smith or Shepherd, right field. Of these eleven men, White is the only one who has played on former Y. M. C. A. teams. The remainder are recruits.

In basketball the association is more confident. Last winter the team from the Y. M. C. A. won second place in the Basketball League, first place going to Carroll Institute. The team has a good many veterans.

The first game will be played with Carroll Institute Saturday evening, October 22. The line-up will include J. L. Thompson, C. W. Pimper, H. L. McQuinn, and C. R. Ellis, the four veterans, and probably F. B. Schlosser.

Other candidates are C. C. Williams, H. C. Leach, T. G. Lohland, H. C. Bailey, R. C. Flower, and O. W. Mangiluz.

Weekly Contests.

All-round gymnasium contests will be held every Friday evening, beginning tonight. Winners and winning teams will be given a certain number of points each week, and at the end of the season these will be totaled to determine the association championship, for which suitable prizes will be awarded.

Outdoor Runs.

Another feature of the physical department is the outdoor runs, held two or three evenings a week, so long as the weather permits. Under the leadership of Mr. Beckett and a seasoned pace-maker, a class is taken on a brisk trot. The distance is about one mile.

SHIPMENTS OF WHEAT TO THE EAST STOPS

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 21.—The buying of Oregon and Washington wheat for shipment to Eastern markets has ceased.

The railroad companies cannot supply enough cars to handle the traffic. Nearly 15,000 bushels already have been sold on Eastern account, and of this amount not over one-third has been forwarded.

STUDENTS AT SYRACUSE FORBIDDEN TO DANCE

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 21.—"Hereafter any attempt on the part of the students to hold a dance will be taken as deliberate notice of your intention to be no longer one of us," said Chancellor Day, of Syracuse University, in a speech made in chapel yesterday afternoon.

PRUSSIAN CROPS FAIR.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—On a scale of two signifying good and three medium the Prussian crop report for the middle of October shows the condition of winter wheat to be 2 1/2 and of winter rye 2 1/2. Much needed general rains benefited all crops, but cold weather is retarding their progress.

GAS LIGHT MEN GO TO MOUNT VERNON

Nearly 300 members of the American Gas Light Association sat down to a banquet last evening at the New Willard Hotel.

This was the final feature of the convention which has been in session here for two days. Milwaukee was selected as the next place of meeting.

This morning many of the delegates made a trip to Mount Vernon as the guests of the Washington Gas Light Company. They went on the steamer Macalester, and enjoyed the trip immensely.

FOLLOWED STONE HE THREW INTO RIVER AND DROWNED

While trying to throw a stone farther out into the river than his playmates from the Cranford Paving Company's wharf, foot of Twenty-sixth Street northwest, yesterday, George Loudon, an eleven-year-old negro boy, lost his balance, falling into the water, and drowning before assistance could reach him.

The boy's grandfather, Peter Johnson, recovered the body after dragging about an hour. Coroner Nevitt ordered the remains sent to the morgue and issued a certificate of accidental death.

MR. PHIPPS WITH HIS FORMER WIFE

Recently Divorced Couple Together in Denver.

LUNCHEON IN PHIPPS HOME

Woman Indignantly Denies She Is on the Verge of Nervous Prostration or Unhappy.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 21.—"Excuse me for whistling," said Laurence C. Phipps, of Denver and Pittsburgh, looking into the eyes of his recently divorced wife, Genevieve Chandler Phipps, as the two stood within the doorway of the Adams Hotel.

Mr. Phipps was making every effort to attract the attention of the cabman, a quarter of a block away. "It is the only way I can get that cab back here," he added.

A peal of laughter followed this remark and the accompanying gesticulations and vocal efforts to attract the attention of "cabby," and then Mrs. Phipps replied: "Whistle as much as you wish."

As the cab reached the curb they entered it and disappeared in Colfax Avenue.

At a Denver Hotel.

Mrs. Phipps and her children, Dorothy and Helen, arrived in Denver Wednesday night and went to the Adams Hotel. Four rooms have been fitted up for her use and she will remain here during the winter.

Mrs. Phipps is not on the verge of nervous prostration over her recent divorce from Laurence C. Phipps. She is not grieving her life away because H. Hart McKee and Mrs. Cornelia Baxter Tavis are having a happy time just now traveling together from Paris to Egypt. With a flash of withering scorn and indignant tones she refuted both these stories.

"Of course, these stories are the most utter nonsense!" exclaimed Mrs. Phipps. "I never was in better health in my life. I am in perfect health."

The friendly behavior of Mr. and Mrs. Phipps has started the tongues of the Capitol Hill gossip. The recently divorced couple took luncheon in the Phipps mansion yesterday.

TOO MUCH OF A TASK.

"What did your wife say when you came home last night?"
"Say? Do you think I can stand here all day repeating it?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Margaret E. Sangster

"One of the noblest and best women in America," for ten years editor of "Harper's Bazar," known and loved by woman-kind throughout the length and breadth of the United States, will write for women in The Washington Sunday Times each week on "Home Topics" and "The Ways of Boys."

To few women has it been given to achieve the great measure of success attained as writer and editor by Mrs. Sangster. Her high standing as a magazine writer is everywhere recognized. The many volumes from her pen have sold enormously. Her personality has been described by many contemporaries as all that is noblest and most charming in womanhood. "There is, for instance, her loveliness of face and manner, which we who know her so delight in." "She would be the last person in the world to realize that of all people she is one of the most delightful, most sympathetic, most charming, most dearly loved by all her friends."

Among the topics Mrs. Sangster will treat in The Washington Sunday Times are the following:

Home Topics

Breakfast Moods
The Man who Must Catch His Train
The Man Who Is Late to Dinner
The Wife's Purse
Too Much Housekeeping
Rest Cures at Home
Good Managers in Grown People
Children on Top
Why Women Like Clubs
Old-Fashioned Ideals
Are We Extravagant?
Mothers and Sons

The Boy's First Love Affair
Fathers and Daughters
Some Home Antagonisms
Evenings When There Is No Company
How to Entertain in a Simple Way
Fireside Ethics
The Secret of Success
Luck and Pluck
Praise as a Stimulant
The Place of the Old in the Home
The Children at School
Shall We Send Jim to College?
Holiday Keeping.

The Ways of Boys

The Boy at the Awkward Age
The Boy's Companions
The Boy and Temptation
Cigarette-Smoking and Its Danger
Fathers and Sons
The Mother and Her Boy
Choosing a Boy's Vocation

Rich Boys and Education
The Preparation for Citizenship
First Falling in Love
Peculiar Snarers that Beset Boys
The Boy and Honesty
The Boy and Courage
Boys and Home Privileges.

In The Washington Sunday Times Each Week

18 More Days To Enter The Times' Election Contest, and Win $1,000